Olinka Vištica is an art producer, fortuitously born in Split, on the shores of Croatia. She holds an MA in English and French language and literature from the University of Zagreb. She is passionate about books, films and swimming. As co-founder of the film production company Hulahop with filmmaker Dana Budisavljević, she has backed projects based on stories that simply had to be told. She has also directed numerous cultural initiatives including international film festivals (Motovun Film Festival, World festival of animated film ANIMAFEST ZAGREB). With interests that reach beyond the world of film she co-authored the Museum of Broken Relationships with Dražen Grubišić.

Dražen Grubišić is a versatile visual artist from Zagreb (Croatia). He holds an MA in Painting from the Academy of Fine Arts in Zagreb. Since 1989 he has been showcasing his work at individual and group expositions as well as taking part in numerous award-winning art projects in Croatia and abroad. Since 2006 he has been co-curating the international exhibitions of the Museum of Broken Relationships including the display of the permanent museum in Zagreb established in 2010.

Dražen and Olinka's joint exploration of the subjects of memory and love has taken them from the depths of self-scrutiny to the heights of the Rocky Mountains, from the straight eighteen-lane highways of Metro Manila to the crooked Proustian trails, from a stranded ship container in Zagreb all the way to the Cape of Good Hope and many places in between.
